

Sleeping Beauty

11 January 2014

I always get great pleasure, to visit West Wickham Pantomime Society and every year they never fail to entertain me, this year, they did it again!! Sleeping Beauty was a beauty of a pantomime mainly due to their professionalism.

The team of Brian Drayson, Dawn Hughes, Sally Warsop and Edwin Pitt Mansfield, as director co director Choreographer and Musical Director have put a solid pantomime together this year. Your cast of about 25 worked well together and looked as if they were enjoying every moment, and that came over the footlights. Older cast and the younger element gelled together superbly; there wasn't a weak link amongst them. I cannot fault anyone on stage, fantastic characterisations and dance from all. Once again your set and lighting were on cue and swiftly executed to perfection. Costumes were as always colourful and pristine, due to your excellent wardrobe staff. Of all the Pantos I have seen this year this is one of the best and I have seen a few!!!.

Once again I am not going to single any cast member or production team out as this was a PERFECT Sleeping Beauty, Brian you should have a huge smile on your face, and should be very proud of your cast and casting.

Well done everyone there.
